There is now in the Free Stales a party acting npon a blind instinct, prompted to action by bad raising and demagogues. They are absorbed with one idea—the freedom of the negro. The more crafty and far-seeing propose to stop at the described of "no more Slave States," opposition to the extension of Slavery, for the present; but the extension of Slavery, for the present; but the estiment does n't stop there, and, if successthe sentiment does n't stop there, and, if successful, will not ond there. Already the programmo is made out for the future—the repeal of the fugitive slave law, the abolition of Slavery in the District of Columbia, abolition of the slave trade between the States, and, finally, the extinction of Slavery in the States. The preliminary steps are to be taken by Congress, and how the process will end at last will depend on events yet to come.

Hatred of Slavery is the main spring, and zeal for nigger freedom the object at last. These men, the honest amongst them, assume that the negro is a white man with a black skin, and base all their reasonings and exhortations on that assumption. The great movement is to set free these white men with black skins. What will become of this race after emancipation is accomplished? What story will the history of future ages have to tell, if this movement succeeds? We maintain in the South that the slavery of the negro is a nethe two races are together, the relation of master and slave is the best that human ingenuity can devise. We subject white children to the control of the parent up to the age of twenty-one for the same reason, and it would be quite as wise to turn loose all the boys and girls of eight or fourteen years of age, as to turn out the negro race to shift for themselves. The negro is not a white man with a black skin; we dony the assumption. He is no inferior in capacity and will to the white race, and can't live in competition with white men. He has, merever, no capacity for self-grand and the self-grand will be the white race, and can't live in competition with white men. He has, merever, no capacity for self-grand and the answer in season, I should have remained in the self-grand, and the answer in season, I should have remained in the self-grand, and the self-grand in the selfover, no capacity for self-government. If we PRENTICE EXPRENSES HIS SCORN FOR SOUTHER are right as to the capacity of the megro, they are guilty of egregious folly. We affirm that all facts, all experience, and all history in relation to the black race, confirm the Sonthern ground on the subject; and it is most reckless wickedness to destroy an institution affecting the vital interests of a whole race, unless there is something to substitute for it, that promises to do as well at least, and we have a right to demand that it should promise something better.

The whole system of Slavery is the subject of constant exaggerations, and overy feature and fact held up the North to incite a prejudice and fact held up in the North to incite a prejudice and fact held up the north of the system, as they do to every human institution, and they can be exaggerated and magnified about the fact held up the institution, and they can be exaggerated and magnified about the fact held up the institution, and they can be exaggerated and magnified about the fact held up the institution, and they can be exaggerated and magnified about the fact held up the institution and they can be exaggerated and magnified about the fact held up the institutions and they can be exaggerated and magnified about the fact held up the institutions of the South to the contempt and reprobation of the World List is what we like happy. It is a fair sample of chivalry approaching the fall-head intensity at which the comments at middy. If we had been at the chivalry in the shoulder and shouted—60 it, Burt. Nothing can be truer than it would be easy to retert with the comparison; but that would not justify wrongs either here or there. A system of slavery applied to the negro; it would be unnatural. The negro race is an infantile one, that has no where approached the condition of the pale face. The distinction is broad and doop, although wilfully overlooked in all the discassions in the Free States. The yell of Freedom, Freedom, will do when we ore dealing with white men. Freedom autte them; they can enjoy it in comfort, happiness, and prosperity; in competition for business or the bor they meet only their equals. Individuals may indeed suffer by misfortunes, or for lack of capacity and energy, but they can shift themselves out of their trouble, and some time turn their froedom to socount; if they cannot their chivilers and cannot have prevent and the previously and enoughly of an institution in the middle of which he had seed to the proviously mot so with the negro; the world knowe it by positive demonstration. Give him his froedom and what has he to hope? The Indian has had his freedom, and his race is passing away through generations of suffering and minery. The same fate would await the negro out of the protection and control of the white man. If we are right in this, the whole movement North is wrong, aside from any constitutional question. Indeed, whilst we plead the conduction of the bond of union, we shall not stop there, as if we wante i to protect a wrong by a contract. African slavory is right; it suits the race to which it is applied better than any system human ingenuity has devived. Add. Sanders, of the Evansville Journal, retended that we misrepresented him in saying per day, have struck for $1 25. that the Fillmore papers in Indiana supported their candidate on the platform of the Fusion party in that State, which was the Black Repubcan platform. Sanders said that he supported Fillmore on the late Philadelphia platform. We asked him several questions, to see if he were indeed an exception amongst his Fillmore brethren. He says the Nebraska bill had its origin amongst reckless demagogues, and is a bill of infamy; but he thinks the discussion to restore the Missouri ompromiso would substitute a worse agitation than its repeal occasioned, and he therefore will still rising. not advocate its restoration. He does not say whether he is for it or not, but he will not advocate it. Shall Kansas come in as a Free or Slave State, as the people may choose? Here Add. dodges. He is willing that the permanent citizens of Kansas may form her institutions, but he is opposed to Squatter-Sovereigns or Border-Ruffians. He can't say with or without slavery; that would choke him or his brothren. He says:

choke him or his brothren. He says:

Mr. Fillmore has not approved of this platform—noither has he disapproved of it, having been out of the country since its adoption. But we know the man well enough to believe that he will not disapprove of a platform to which no true patriot can object. We run him on this platform entirely on "our own hook"—simply because the platform suits us and the man suits us, and we believe there will be found no serious difference between uniting the two. As Mr. Fillmore was not nominated on any platform, he and has principles being considered platform enough for any party, those who advocate the claims of Fillmore can take him with or without the platform, as they choose. We prefer to run him on the platform, white there are other editors in his State who advocate his claims separate and distinct from the platform, because they do not like the platform in all its feature. Here is question 1: Does the Democrat believe that its party, after accept-ng the compromise of 1850 as a finality, acted either nonestly or consistent y in making this Kansas-Ne-rraska bill an Administration measure, and in repeal-ug the Missouri compromise?

Question 2—After adopting a resolution in their Nation platform of 1953, "that the Democratic party will resist all attempts at renewing, in Congress or out of it, the agitation of the Slavery question, under whatever color or shape it may assume," does the Democrat think its party has acted either honestly or consistently in wilfully and premeditatedly causing the present Slavery agitation?

Having been an eye-witness, and having scen no report of it in the papers, I will, for the benefit of the editor, give you some particulars of the sale, The lots are situated on Grayson, between Eighteenth and Nineteenth. The streets are graded there will be no difficulty in uniting the two. probension of the incendiary who fired the town and macadamized. The first lot was a long time reaching a bid of between $5 and $6 per foot, when 'twas knocked off at about the latter figure, and thore being no offers for the other lots, the sale was stopped. The owner declared that he paid $10 per foot for the property himself, and had pald beside $2 25 for grading and macadamizing, making it $12 25 per foot, for which he got about $6 per foot -a handsome speculation certainly! The terms of the sale offered, too, extraordinary inducements. $50 only being required in cash, the balance in one and two years.

OF THE UNITED STATES An advertisement of Mr. UDOLPHO WOLFE, latel published, as I suppose, for the protection of his Schie dam Schnapps against connterfeiters, has come under my observation; and, being engaged in the manufac ture of Schiedam Schnarps, were I to let it pass without uotice, I might be considered among those he douoninates "Pirates and Venders of Poison." But the Im mense patronage and success that has attended the sale of the article manufactured by me, and the opinion of competent judges as to its qualities as a beverage and its medicinal virtues, precludes the possibility of the idea that I am included among those he designs to impugn. No doubt he feels aggrieved at the depreciati of the sale of his Schnapps, which is manifest to all, since mine has been brought into competition with his. Not only have I succeeded in competing with him in quality, but the constant and increasing demand for my article will soon satisfy him that his caution to the citizens of the "Southern and Western States" will avail him nothing as far as I am concerned. The character of my Schie am Schnspps is too well established in those States to be injured by any such invidione publication. The motive of his advertisement i obvious to every one, and feeling well satisfied that all such missiles thrown at me by him will fall harmless at my feet, I will here, for the satisfaction of the public publish my Copy Bight, entered in the Southern Dis

Be it remembered, That on the twenty-eighth day of December, Anno Dommi 1894, Barnard L. Simpson, of the said District, hath deposited in this office the ritle of a print of label, the title of which Isin the words following, to-wit: "Barnard L. Simpson's Aromatic Schiedam Juniper Schnapps, a superior Tonic Anti-Dyspeptic Invigorating Cordial," the right whereof he craims as author and proprietor, in conformity with an act of Oongress, entitled "An act to amend the several acts respecting copy rights." GEO. W. MORTON, Clerk of the Southern Instrict of New York.

The word Schiedam Schuapps is derived from a town in Folland, called "Skiedam," which is ecclemated as a n Holland, called "Shiedam," which is celebrated as a blace of extensive juniper plantations and numerous listilleries of the above article, which has been known as Schnapps" for centuries.

Does it not appear, now, poor and deceitful for U. W. o attempt to make a wrong and nn:rue impression on the public by asserting that the name "Schiedam Schnapps" belongs exclusively to his article, and that all others are counterfeits and impositions? U. W. has no monopoly, and no more right for the sole importation of Schiedam Schnapps than anybody else, and he may rest assured that I shall be the last to submit to his unjustifiable pretensions.

The great and increasing demand for my Genuine chiedam Schnapps in Louisville, and thronghout Ken ncky, has induced me to appoint Mersrs. CLARK & INSON, Wholesale Druggists, No. 569 Maln street, as my agents for supplying the trade at my regular prices, nd they will always be furnished with a full stock o oth quarts and pints, safely packed, in good shipping

I take pleasure on this occasion to tender my since thanks to the public in general, and to my friends in particular, for the kind liberality with which they have patronized me from my commencement of this enter-prize, and I assure them that I shall continue to provide them always with a geuuine aud superior strict of Schiedam Schuapps. WOLFE'S Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps

This celebrated medicinal beverage is manufactured at the factory of the undersigned, at Schiedam, Hoiland. He is the sole importer, as well as the exclusive ng the name of "Schnapps," that is not procured tither from his establishment in New York, or from his agents in other cities, is genuine and reliable. It is made from barley of the finest quality, selected with great care from the products of the most celebrated grain-growing districts; is flavored with the essence of the aromatic Juniper Berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process, which expels from the spirit every acrid particle. As a means of preventing and correcting the disa-precable and often dangerous effects produced upon the stomach and bowels by a change of water—a visita-tion to which travelers, new settlers, and all unacclimated persons in the west, the south, and southwest are peculiarly llable—the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps will be found absolutely Infallible; while, in cases of dropsy, gravel, obstruction of the kidneys, diseases of the bladder, dyspepsia, and general debility, it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession.

This legislative body afterwards assembled, assumed to be a legitimate reated public offices and summed to municipal laws. regislature, set forth a code of municipal laws, reated public offices and filled them with officers prointed for a considerable period by themselves, and thus established complete and effective foreign grauny over the people of the territory. These high-handed transactions, consummated with the express purpose of establishing African Slavery as a pormanent institution within the territory by force, in violation of the neutral rights of the people, solomuly guaranteed to them by the Con-gress of the United States.

The President of the United States has been an accessory to these political transactions, with full complicity in regard to the purpose for which they were committed. He has adopted the usurthey were committed. He has adopted the usur-pation and made it his own, and he is now main-taining it with the military arms of the Repub-lic. Thus Kansas has been revolutionized, and she now lies subjugated and prostrate at the feet of the President of the United States, while he, through the agency of foreign tyranny established within her borders, is forcibly introducing and establishing slavery there in contempt and in defiance of the organic law. These extraordinary trans-actions have here attended by civil commotions, in which property, life, and liberty, have been ex-posed to violonce; and these commotions still con-tinuo to threaten—not only the Territory itself but also the adjacent States, with the calamities and disgraces of civil war. I am fully aware of the gravity of the charges against the President of the United States, which this statement of the condition and relation of Kansas imports. the Union is for the true conservative men of the North, now represented by sound national Democracy, to unite with the South, and wage unoessing war on the fanatics who would tear down the pillars of our Republic.

The debate was renewed on the Senate's amendments, appropriating $50,000 for engraving the maps and drawings accompanying the reports, explorations, and surveys, to determine the Pacific Railroad route. The question of extravagance was discussed, and in this connection one of the gentlemen said the printing and engraving of this work will cost a minion doilers, while others thought such large outlays would have a tendency to prejudice the construction of the road. business.—M. O. Pacapuno.

It were a work of supercogation to praise a book of livere a work of supercogation to praise a book of livere a work of supercogation to praise a book of livere a work of supercogation to praise a book of livere a work of supercogation to praise a book of livered to the course of the course of the course which it gives. Old manufacturers will find all of the old modes entirely superseded. The nee of the old formulas would appear as the "toam of folly" in this presence of the new ones suggested in this work. One of the principal objects appears to be to avoid, as far as possible, the use of appearats or expensive (to the operator) appliances of any kind in the manufacturer of the principal course, acc.—After York Thuss.

This volume contains the art of preparing and put the purper whole list of drinksbles, from a choice pipe of Card Dupuy, of the vintage of 1878, to a simple and committed manner of making ofter without apples, by termentation. A friend has applied the recipe for converting 32 gallons of whisky into 30 gallons with the most asticfactory results. The latter quality does not present a equal amount of intoxicating properties to the firmer, though the 40 gallons was of a much fine vier, taste, and odor.—New Fork Mechanic.

This much talked of book is athand. It contains a mass of information that is perfectly astonishing, and could only have been acquired from actual observation. If you wish to see Ingenuity applied, look in a copy of Lacour on Liquor. Practicability appears to have been acquired from actual observation. Parel Sea.

contains an immense parameter of tordular for making every variety of liquors, wines, cordials, bitters, syrings, wines, as, e. The work is published by subscription; the subscribers are coasiers and importers of liquors in this city. This alone would speak more in favor of the reliability of the work than could be otherwise said.

From Hon. J. R. Underwood.

I have seen many of Dr. Priee's patients afflicted with the Scrofula, both before and after they were healed. It is certain that nicers of the most inveterate character seemed to yield readily to his Chronic Specific. I have seen many certificates in possession of Dr. Plice, bearing testimony to his entire success.

Bowling Green, Ky. JUS. R. UNDERWOOD.

A servant girl in my famity was afflicted with Scrofnious Sore Eyes. Notwithstanding she had medicaltreat ment, upon the whole she grew worse, nutil I feared that she would become totally blind. She was placed under Dr. Price's treatment, and to all appearances a radical cure was performed. For several months pass she has seemed to me, as she does now, to be perfectly free from any defect or soreness of the eyes, and to be in penfect health otherwise.
